

Specific Responsibilities of Workforce Development Boards (WDBs) and Education Advisory Groups (EAGs) for Selected Programs and Activities: The Michigan Career Development System

The Education Advisory Group serves in an advisory capacity to the Detroit Workforce Development Board in deliberations on educational issues. These issues include the oversight of career development funds and development of related plans, school-to-work programs, and related performance.

PROGRAMS/ACTIVITIES	RESPONSIBILITIES
	WDBs	EAGs
Programs for which Board is responsible – Local Elected Official (LEO) is grant recipient (e.g. WIA Title I, Partnership for Adult Learning - PAL)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Decision making authority 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Advise WDB
Federal Adult Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Collaborate with MDCE in decision making 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Advise WDB
Adult Education – School Aid Section 107	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Encourage alignment with strategic plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Encourage alignment with strategic plan
Career Preparation Act	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review and sign plans 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop and submit plans to MDCE
Secondary Perkins and Tech Prep	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Encourage alignment with strategic plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Approve plans
Postsecondary Perkins	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Encourage alignment with strategic plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review and comment on plans
Michigan Works! One-Stop System	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Decision making authority 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Advise WDB on any education related issue
Building Strategic Partnerships for Career Development	WDBs	EAGs
Strategic Planning/ Implementation: Unify the above state and federal programs, as well as locally managed resources that impact on the Career Development System.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Overall management of the process Submit “Strategic Plan” to MDCE Program for which the Board/LEO is responsible- decision making 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Advise the WDB on education related issues For a program for which EAG members are responsible – decision making

Source: Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Growth